

Village Comparison Document

Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

ABN: 86 504 771 740

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at www.yukana.org.au
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Park Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement village. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.
 - The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at 27 July 2026 and applies to prospective residents. That information is subject to change. The operator reserves the right to vary any of the information in this Village Comparison Document at any time.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

The higher the Ingoing Contribution paid, the lower the Licence Fee payable. If the Ingoing Contribution paid is $1, the Licence Fee payable is $150.00 per day ($1,050.00 per week). If the Ingoing Contribution paid is $525,000, the Licence Fee payable is $75.00 per day ($525.00 per week). (Note: the obligation to pay the Licence Fee ceases from the day that is three (3) years after the resident's Agreed Date of Entry).

- Basic Service Fee: currently $66.80 per day ($467.60 per week). The Basic Service Fee is an amount equivalent to 85% of the maximum basic rate of the Australian single age pension, from time to time.
- Gap Fee: currently ranging from $126.48 per day ($885.36 per week) to $224.97 per day ($1,574.79 per week), depending on the level of personal services required. The Gap Fee represents the total of the resident's Maintenance Reserve Fund contributions, General Services Charge, Standard Personal Services Charges and Extended Personal Services Charges (if applicable) in respect of the Unit, less the Basic Service Fee, from time to time.

Residents of Total Care Apartments discharge their obligation to pay their Maintenance Reserve Fund contributions, General Services Charge, Standard Personal Services Charges and Extended Personal Services Charges (if applicable) in respect of the Unit for a period by paying us the Basic Service Fee and Gap Fee for that period.

10.2 What costs relating to the units are not covered by the General Services Charge? (residents will need to pay these costs separately)	☒ Contents insurance ☐ Home insurance (freehold units only) ☒ Electricity (Independent Living Units only) ☐ Gas	☒ Water (Independent Living Units only) ☒ Telephone ☒ Internet ☒ Pay TV ☒ Other – non-direct debit fee (payable where recurring charges are not paid by direct debit), payment dishonour fee (payable when a direct debit or other payment is dishonoured), interest on late payments, fees for replacement security devices or keys (payable where a resident has lost their security device or keys) and fee for replacement emergency pendant (payable where resident has lost their emergency pendant). See also Item 10.1 regarding the Licence Fee potentially payable by residents of Total Care Apartments.
10.3 What other ongoing or occasional costs for repair, maintenance and replacement of items in, on or attached to the units are residents responsible for and pay for while residing in the unit?	☐ Unit fixtures ☐ Unit fittings ☐ Unit appliances ☐ None Additional information Residents will be responsible for the cost of rectifying any damage or accelerated wear they cause to the unit, including its fixtures, fittings and appliances.

10.4 Does the operator offer a maintenance service or help residents arrange repairs and maintenance for their unit? If yes: provide details, including any charges for this service.	☒ Yes ☐ No Refer item 7.2.
Part 11 – Exit fees – when you leave the village
A resident may have to pay an exit fee to the operator when they leave their unit or when the right to reside in their unit is sold. This is also referred to as a ‘deferred management fee’ (DMF).
11.1 Do residents pay an exit fee when they permanently leave their unit? If yes: list all exit fee options that may apply to new contracts	☐ Yes – all residents pay an exit fee calculated using the same formula ☐ Yes – all new residents pay an exit fee but the way this is worked out may vary depending on each resident’s residence contract ☐ No exit fee ☒ Other Total Care Apartments New residents of Total Care Apartments do not pay an exit fee. Independent Living Units Exit fees for all new residents of Independent Living Units are calculated as a percentage set out below of the ingoing contribution paid by you, according to the period between your Agreed Date of Entry and the date you cease occupying your accommodation unit pursuant to termination of your residence contract (Licence Term). In this document, Agreed Date of Entry means the earlier of the date you commence occupying the accommodation unit or the date you are entitled to commence occupying the accommodation unit. For simplicity, this document and any Prospective Costs Document given to you assume that your Agreed Date of Entry and your date of occupation of your unit are the same date. The relevant percentages are detailed in the table below. Despite anything referred to in this Part 11, we may agree with a resident at the time of entering into a residence contract that an exit fee table different to the table shown in this document will apply. In this event, the exit fee table which applies to that resident will be shown in the residence contract.

Independent Living Units only
Time period from date of occupation of unit to the date the resident ceases to reside in the unit	Exit fee calculation based on your ingoing contribution
1 year	15% of your ingoing contribution
2 years	19% of your ingoing contribution
3 years	23% of your ingoing contribution
4 years	27% of your ingoing contribution
5 years	31% of your ingoing contribution
6 years	35% of your ingoing contribution
10 years	35% of your ingoing contribution
Note: if the period of occupation is not a whole number of years, the exit fee will be worked out on a daily basis. The maximum (or capped) exit fee is 35% of the ingoing contribution after 6 years of residence. The minimum exit fee is 1 day/365 days (1 day/366 days in a leap year) of 15% of your ingoing contribution, if the licence term is one day.
11.2 What other exit costs do residents need to pay or contribute to?	☐ Sale costs for the unit ☐ Legal costs ☒ Other costs - if the resident does not agree with the village operator's proposed resale value of the right to reside in the unit, the resident may be required to contribute to the cost of engaging a registered valuer according to the following formula: Valuation costs x $\frac{(\text{Ingoing Contribution} - \text{Exit Fee})}{\text{New Ingoing Contribution}}$ In this item 11.2, "New Ingoing Contribution" means the ingoing contribution paid by the next resident of the Unit.
Part 12 – Reinstatement and renovation of the unit
12.1 Is the resident responsible for reinstatement of the	☒ Yes ☐ No

unit when they leave the unit?	Reinstatement work means replacements or repairs that are reasonably necessary to return the unit to the same condition it was in when the resident started occupation, apart from: • fair wear and tear; and • renovations and other changes to the condition of the unit carried out with agreement of the resident and operator. Fair wear and tear includes a reasonable amount of wear and tear associated with the use of items commonly used in a retirement village. However, a resident is responsible for the cost of replacing a capital item of the retirement village if the resident deliberately damages the item or causes accelerated wear. Entry and exit inspections and reports are undertaken by the operator and resident to assess the condition of the unit.
12.2 Is the resident responsible for renovation of the unit when they leave the unit?	☒ No Renovation means replacements or repairs other than reinstatement work. By law, the operator is responsible for the cost of any renovation work on a former resident's unit, unless the residence contract provides for the resident to share in the capital gain on the sale of the resident's interest in the unit. Renovation costs are shared between the former resident and operator in the same proportion as any capital gain is to be shared under the residence contract.

Part 13– Capital gain or losses

13.1 When the resident's interest or right to reside in the unit is sold, does the resident share in the capital gain or capital loss on the resale of their unit?	☒ No

Part 14 – Exit entitlement or buyback of freehold units

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?	Ingoing Contribution paid by you Plus any credits or amounts owed to you Minus any of the following items where applicable: • Exit fee (for Independent Living Units only); • Any outstanding general or personal service charges, maintenance reserve fund contributions or (for Total Care Apartments) Basic Service Fees or Gap Fees; • Any outstanding Licence Fees (for Total Care Apartments); • The cost of reinstatement work (as defined in item 12.1);

	• Your share of any costs of engaging a registered valuer to determine the resale value of the right to reside in the unit (see item 11.2); • Subject to the Act, any costs which the village operator reasonably incurs as a result of you not removing your property from the accommodation unit when your residence contract ends, including costs of removing and storing your property, repairing any damage caused by the removal, giving you notice of the village operator's intention to treat your property as abandoned and selling or otherwise disposing of your property; • Any interest on overdue monies; and • Any other monies owing by you to the village operator. Note: If the net amount calculated above is a negative amount, you must pay that net amount to the village operator on the same date as the village operator would otherwise have paid you an exit entitlement.
14.2 When is the exit entitlement payable?	By law, the operator must pay the exit entitlement to a former resident on or before the earliest of the following days: • the day stated in the residence contract ➤ which is 12 months after the termination of the residence contract (subject to conditions) • 14 days after the settlement of the sale of the right to reside in the unit to the next resident or the operator • 18 months after the termination date of the resident's right to reside under the residence contract, even if the unit has not been resold, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT). In addition, an operator is entitled to see probate or letters of administration before paying the exit entitlement of a former resident who has died.
14.3 What is the turnover of units for sale in the village?	7 accommodation units were vacant as at the end of the last financial year 25 accommodation units were resold during the last financial year 1.2 months was the average length of time to sell a unit over the last three financial years 1.5 months was the average length of time to sell a Total Care Apartment over the last three financial years 1.0 months was the average length of time to sell an Independent Living Unit over the last three financial years Note: These average periods include rights to reside purchased by the village operator and residents that transfer from Independent Living Units to Total Care Apartments.
